- There's plenty of offensive firepower in the mix for UPIKE in 2014 as the team's leading rusher (Seth Millar) and receiver (Shawntez Johnson) are back in an offense that plans to keep a wide-open attack under first-year interim head coach Allan Holland Jr. As offensive coordinator last season, Holland helped the Bears outgain opponents 443-416, including a stellar 272.5 passing yards per game.
- Millar and Johnson won't be alone as a host of newcomers are also looking to get on the field in 2014. Running back Quan Weaver, a transfer from Kentucky State, has impressed during fall camp. Weaver, who originally committed to Louisville out of high school, gained 2,243 all-purpose yards as a junior at Frankfort before losing his senior year to an injury. Adding depth at receiver for UPIKE will be Western Kentucky transfer and Weaver's former teammate at Frankfort, Aaron Jackson. The 6-2 wideout played in six games for coach Bobby Petrino's Hilltoppers last season, catching three passes for 20 yards.
- Allan Holland Jr. is a familiar face with a new title after being named interim head coach earlier this month, just days after former head coach Dudley Hilton resigned for personal and health reasons. This is the Hazard, Ky., native's fifth season at UPIKE, formerly serving as the Associate Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator. Holland will still be calling the plays, while Brian Williams will be in his second season in charge of the Bears' defense.
- Williams will be looking to replace three of his top-five tacklers from last season, although the top two, Demetrius Taylor and John-Dudley Hilton, return after tallying 63 tackles each in 2013.
- There are five home dates on the schedule this season, but the first won't come until week three when UPIKE hosts Edward Waters (Fla.) for a non-conference rematch of last season's thrilling 47-41 overtime win down in Jacksonville, Fla. This time it will be EWC making the long road trip before the Bears welcome 18th-ranked Lindsey Wilson (Ky.) to town the next week for the MSC home opener.
- Easy weeks are not part of playing in the Mid-South Conference as UPIKE is currently looking at four ranked opponents on the schedule, according to the NAIA Preseason Coaches' Top-25 Poll released earlier this month. Lindsey Wilson will be the first one, followed by a trip to No. 4 Cumberlands (Ky.) on Sept. 27, hosting No. 25 Cumberland (Tenn.) on Oct. 4 and taking on No. 12 Georgetown (Ky.) at home on Oct. 25.
